

CONFIRMATION AT SØLYST

Lunch event

At Sølyst, we only have one mission, and that is to make our guests love Sølyst as much as we ourselves do. That is why Sølyst's chefs are uncompromising when it comes to the ingredients, and even though our waitstaff use a measuring tape when setting the tables as in the old days, they never compromise on the fact that everyone, regardless of occasion, should feel warmly welcome.

Sølyst is a unique house with stunning sea views, but it is much more than that. It is the setting for a team of people who are passionate about personal service. This means that we are all dedicated to making the whole experience – before, during and after the party – as relaxed, perfect and unforgettable as possible.

We pride ourselves in customising any party, but we also know that it may sometimes be helpful to have something to compare with.

A very warm welcome to Sølyst!

The first thing that greets the guests is the classic white mansion building with the red carpet. We welcome you in the King's Hall, where, among other things, Thomas Kluge has portrayed High Brother H.R.H. Prince Henrik of Denmark.
